

SOCIETY

(Continued From First Page.)

Mrs. John Stagle Davis, and Levi Lawrence Phillips, which will take place in the chapel at the University of Virginia on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A reception at "Arlene," the home of the bride's parents, will be held later in the evening.

Miss Davis is one of two beautiful sisters, who have been acknowledged belles ever since they were formally presented to society, and her wedding this week will be celebrated in the presence of a distinguished company of invited guests. She belongs to one of the oldest and best known families in the state and has frequently visited in Richmond.

BRIANT WITTE.

Hannover Camping Party.

McGowan King gave another camping party at "The Camp," near Cady, Hannover County, last week. A dance was given in honor of the party on Saturday night in the high school auditorium, and Mr. King entertained as guests Misses Martha Blair, Emily Wade, Katherine King and Charles Tabb, of Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whitson Taylor, of Hannover, chaperoned the party.

Carnegie-Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lyle, of Radford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Conway, to Lieutenant Wyatt E. Carnegie, United States Army, stationed in Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Carnegie, of Broad Street. The wedding date has not yet been announced.

Resume Dancing Classes.

Misses Mary Grigg and Franklin Crane will resume their dancing classes for the season on Friday evening of this week. The first dance of the season will take place at 254 North Lombardy Street.

Cottrell-Drever.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drever have issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Ann, to Charles Cottrell, of the county of the bride's parents, yesterday at noon in the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., officiating, with only the immediate families present. Miss Isabelle Cottrell, sister of the bride, and Mr. Cottrell, brother of the groom, were the only attendants. After a Northern trip, including New York, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Baltimore and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell will be at home at 2145 Hanover Avenue.

Fashionable Wedding.

One of the most important weddings of the year took place at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening at The Maple, the country home in Raleigh, Md., of Mrs. R. T. Lackie, where her youngest daughter, Miss Elsie Watts, was married to Thomas A. Cassilly, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Cassilly of The Hawthornes, Belcamp, Harford County, Md. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large and fashionable assemblage by Rev. Cornelius Dancy. The house was decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn foliage, and an orchestra played during the ceremony and afterward for the reception, which was followed by dancing. The ushers were Dr. Raymond Dowling, of New York; Hugh Watts, Shirley Morgan and Smith Bradford. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Forsyth and Mrs. Frank Loney Wright, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Harry Dorsey Watts, her sister-in-law; Miss Frances Whitson, of Wilmington, Del.; Miss Fannie Fairfax Harrison, of Fauquier County; and Miss Josephine Tinsall Smith, of Baltimore. They wore gowns of yellow chiffon over white satin with large black velvet hats, and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Audrey Watts and John Hyatt Wright, niece and nephew of the bride, held the ribbons. The bride entered the drawing-room with her brother, Harry Dorsey Watts, Robert Rogers Cassilly was the best man. The bride wore an exquisite creation of white chiffon over cloth of silver with a court train of cloth of silver and a veil of old Brussels lace. Her jewels were old family pearls, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and swainsons. After a wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Cassilly will spend the autumn in Hartford, Conn., and will take an apartment in town for the winter.

Luncheon for Mrs. Stephens.

Mrs. Charles A. Metzger, of 414 East Broad Street, gave a pretty luncheon Wednesday at her home in honor of her guest, Mrs. M. J. Stephens, of Washington. The luncheon table was decorated with pink roses and gladiolus and covers were laid for fourteen.

Miss Chestwood a Bridesmaid.

Of interest here is a marriage which took place Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at Great Methodist Church, Norfolk, when Miss Louise Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion C. Saunders, became the bride of Howard Samuel Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Myers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Robinson, of Park Place Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. G. C. Kelly, pastor of the church. Decorations were white flowers, palms, ferns, white candles. Miss Louise Saunders, the organist, played, and just before the marriage Miss Louise Lewis sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Saunders was given away by her father in a white satin, trimmed with tulle and pearls, and made with a court train embroidered with pearls. Her tulle veil was arranged with natural orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The mother of the bride was the bride's sister, Mrs. J. D. Worth Strong, who wore a gown of white satin with an overdrap of orchid tulle and carried pink roses. Miss Marion Saunders, also a sister of the bride, was child colored satin with orchid tulle and her flowers pink roses. The two bridesmaids were Miss Marie Chestwood, of Richmond, and Miss Sallie White, of Norfolk. The flower girls of pink satin combined with tulle and orchid colored asters. Little Misses Martha Saunders, sister of the bride, and Ruth Myers, sister of the groom, were flower girls. The bridegroom was little Miss Yvonne Strong and she wore a white tulle gown with pink ribbons. Mr. Myers had as his best man his brother, Charles Myers, and the ushers included Mr. Putt, of Huntington, Pa.; Nicholas Wright, William Henry Richmond, Jefferson Overlander, George Price and Raymond Gilbert.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a reception from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Colonial Place.

Annually-Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Lyle announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kathryn Minor, to Luther Raymond Stannally, also of Richmond. The marriage will take place in October.

Marriage Announced.

Mrs. George A. Richardson announces the marriage of her daughter, Mattie May, to Paul B. Williams, also of Richmond, the ceremony having taken place on Thursday, September 7. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. A. Snoot, D. D., pastor of Centenary Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ingram Carrington Ingram announces the engagement of her daughter, Carter, to Tazewell Morton Carrington, Jr., also of this city. The wedding will take place on the morning of October 21.

Miss Gunn Weds.

A fashionable affair of yesterday was the marriage of Miss Harriet Granville Gunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Granville Gunn, and Sydney Evans Sharwood, of Philadelphia, son of Edward R. Sharwood. The ceremony took place at high noon in the Second Presbyterian Church in the presence of a large assembly of prominent guests, Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., officiating. The altar was arranged with palms and Ascension lilies and the chancel was banked with ferns and fragrant white blossoms. "Tranquility" was played very softly during the service.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her in marriage, and they were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, E. Ward Sharwood, of Philadelphia. Her wedding dress was a quaint affair fashioned of white chiffon embroidered in silver flowers and draped over white satin, and the court train of illusion was edged with silver and caught up at intervals with sprays of orange blossoms. Her long tulle veil fell from a cap of lace fastened with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Donald Stewart Leas, of Philadelphia, who was her sister's dame of honor, wore a gown of hydrangea moire and georgette crepe finished with beaver fur, and a large hat of orange velvet, also trimmed in beaver fur.

The four bridesmaids—Miss Katherine Gordon, Miss Katherine Smith, of New York; Mrs. Vincent Wood, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Peter Paul MacKewski—wore similar frocks of claret pink tulle and georgette crepe. Their large black hats were of antique satin and they carried nosegays of pink roses. The groomsmen included Cadwallader Kelsey, of Hartford, Conn.; Horace Cooke, of Trenton, N. J.; Vincent Wood, Charles Jennings, Richard Sprague and Donald S. Leas, all of Philadelphia.

Following the ceremony at the church, a wedding breakfast for a wedding party and out-of-town guests was given at the Commonwealth Club. The bride has been one of the most popular members of the society since her debut several seasons ago, and her wedding to Mr. Sharwood, who is equally as prominent socially in Philadelphia, is one of the most important events of the early fall.

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. Henry Cabell Jones announces the engagement of her daughter, Mira Parke, to Edward Lyle Wood. The wedding will take place the latter part of October.

Interesting Announcement.

An engagement of interest recently announced in Ashland is that of Miss Anna Beverly Vaden to Frank H. Cox, also of Ashland. The marriage will take place in November. Miss Vaden is a daughter of the late Charles B. Vaden. Mr. Cox is well known in this section of Virginia.

Mr. Adams to Wed.

Miss Albertine Moore, of Raleigh, N. C., entertained last week at a bridge luncheon in honor of Miss Elizabeth Duncan, whose engagement was announced to Steven Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Adams, of Richmond, and "Barrington," in Fauquier County. Several games of bridge were played, after which the prize for the highest score was awarded Miss Lucy Dorch, while the guest of honor's prize went to Miss Duncan.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

Of Interest Here.

The many new announcements of engagements and of weddings, make today an important one in society annals. Miss Tillie Page's engagement is among the most interesting of these. Miss Page is to marry Dr. Joseph Packard Lath, of Devon, Pa., a nephew of Philip D. Lath, of Maryland, and grandson of the late Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D., for a generation dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. The wedding will take place in the fall. Though now living in Fairfax, where her father, Rev. Frank Page, has his parish, Miss Tillie Page is known as a leading figure among Brooklyn girls. Her full name is Matilda Coleman Page, and her sister, Miss Betty Page, was a leading part in society from their early girlhood. Miss Betty married.

EVENING DRESS

OUR LINE OF $35.00

OUR SUITS has never been more complete, both in variety and beauty of models. Suits in velours, needle-cloth and broadcloths, many of them with fancy linings and every novelty feature the fashions pronounce; skirts tailored with individuality to conform to the suit coat. $35.

NOVELTY SPORTS APPAREL

in English homespun and tweeds. Suits adapted equally to travel, the street or for sports. A variety of models nearly all with varying style features for individuality. $35.00.

FIRST QUALITY SUITS.

in plain velours, cashmere velours, velours checks and velour gabardines; also in kitten's ear and Rodier broadcloth. These models are trimmed in Australian opossum, flying squirrel, kolinski, mink, mole and seal. Priced variously $45.00 to $225.00.

Novelty Misses' School Dresses

OF CORRECT AND CHARMING SCOT-TISH CLAN PLAIDS; full pleated on yoke, with collar of white faille and four-inch girdle at the high waist line; smart nickel buttons. Special, $15.00.

Dresses

IN A VARIETY OF ATTRACTIVE MODELS, in serge; one style is in straight lines and pleated; another in Moyen age conceit in Balkan treatment, finished with Balkan embroidery. Each, $18.50.

SERGE AND COMBINATIONS OF SERGE AND SATIN

in Russian effect, beaded designed in straight lines; others trimmed in braid and draped to the side, attractively revealing the linings in contrast; finished with tassels. $25 and up.

EVENING AND AFTER-NOON DRESSES.

in Gros de Londres, nets and satins, in black and white effects or finished with iridescents, cloth of silver or silver applique. Models for misses in short waist effects, models for ladies in fashionable unbroken lines. $10.00 to $75.00.

THE KAUFMANN STORE

SUITS

$16.50 to $225.00

OUR LEADER IN POPULAR PRICED SUITS is a splendid quality in wool poplin, with smart collar high at the neck and stylishly nipped in at the waist line. This suit trimmed in braid and velvet. Fortunate buying permits of our selling this model $5.00 lower than would ordinarily be possible. In navy only. A limited purchase, at, each, $16.50.

A HANDSOME AMERICAN VELOURS SUIT, trimmed in seal, has a straight buttoning military front, to be worn open or closed; high waist line gathered in front and severely tailored at back; in all popular shades, button trimmed. $25.00.

ONE OF THE LANVIN MODELS, designed for the American trade, has been made up for us in broadcloth, trimmed in Nutria fur; semi-belted, with collar and cuffs of charming design; coat lined in peau de cygne. $25.00.

IT IS WORTHY OF REMARK that these suits at popular prices are finished (at our order) with the refinements of detail, usual in our higher priced garments—under arm shields, etc.; garments in every sense Kaufmannworthy.

COATS

$12.50 to $95.00

FABRICS SOFT AND THICK AS NEVER HERETOFORE; deep warm colors as satisfying as they are refined; collars and great cuffs achieved in such novel conceits; intricate effects in belts, generosity of cut and lines that sweep full, free and graceful; a score of elements in the new coats conspire to enthrall you, and you scarcely can wait to slip into their great, comfortable swag-gar folds. You scarcely will need to wait if you are shopping here.

Regardless of the price you have in mind, Specialty Shop Service—S. S. S.—Spells Sure Satisfaction.

FROM THE $12.50 COLLECTION HERE IS ONE: a pebble chevrot, loose flaring and semi-belted, yoked both front and back, charming Medici collar, in Java, balsam, panard and navy. $12.50.

AN EXCEEDINGLY HANDSOME, VERY FULL FLARING COAT, is fashioned in wool plush or velours, as you prefer. Full lined with extra large collar, trimmed in beaverette; fancy cuffs and belted across the front. Only $16.50.

SPORTS APPAREL

CHARMING GREAT COATS OF VELOURS.

half lined with deep Napoleon cuffs; trimmed in large buttons and the full lines slightly belted in across the back; the big Valesquez collars are of opossum, etc. A pleasing assortment at $25.00.

IN HIGHER PRICED COATS

our stocks are most complete. One of these, a coat of Bolivia cloth, is designed to be worn with separate furs, full lined with extremely swaggar collar, which is convertible, giving the new funnel or monk collar effect; all-around belt and deep cuffs.

Shown in several varying styles, in Burgundy, plum, Java, Tamarack, rose taupe and navy. $40.00. Other model in Bolivia or Rodier, richly fur trimmed. $40.00.

Accessories of Dress For Milady Particular

HERE, for example, are the new neck fixings, presenting at even a casual glance that distinguishment for which Specialty Shop wearables are so universally approved.

Satin collars in all the new styles, scalloped or with edges plain. $1.00, $1.50, $1.98.

Flannel collars, newest modes, many with satin borders, etc. 50c to $1.75.

Georgette Vests with the new collars (many of them up-standing and boned), embroidery and lace finished. $2.50 to $3.98.

Georgette collars, edged in satin, gros-grain or laces; also with embroideries. $1.50 to $3.98.

New and dainty organdy collars; very newest shapes; lace and net frilled edges. 50c to $1.98.

Gloves

THAT will not detract from the tout ensemble of the costume. Gloves upon which Specialty Shop discrimination have been bestowed.

French glace kid gloves, imported, in tan, black and white, with stitched backs, in Paris point or with two-tone embroidery backs—gold, green, blue and brown. Special, $1.65.

New suede and Mocha gloves, in pearl or rubber gray, sand or black. $1.65. The incomparable Redfern, in ivory, pearl or bisque. $1.25.

An Exhibit of Hats From Paris With Speed

"When I looked at those wonderful hats," said our head designer, "and reflected that not a single soul in America, of the buying public, had seen them, I realized my opportunity and decided to bring them to Richmond or die in the attempt."

Trade reasons and our express promise forbid us to say what American house imported them and copied them.

They are ours (and yours) as a courtesy to our designer, Miss Mae Cooke, who, having the entire to the importers' showrooms, saw them and prevailed upon the house in question to permit of her bringing them here.

They will be shown here Monday and in Fifth Avenue Monday for the first time in America.

They were passed by revenue appraisers less than ten days since.

Twenty days ago they adorned the ateliers of the Parisian modistes.

There are but eight of them—and yet SUCH AN EIGHT!—words cannot convey the witchery of their charm and newness.

This is a triumph for us—as not often (if ever) has it been permitted Richmond to witness an exhibit of newly imported models—concurrently with their initial showing in New York.

RUSSIAN MODELS IN SATIN

pleated and trimmed in buttons; marked waist line at the back; straight lines from the yoke in front. Shown in navy, Java and purple. Extremely fashionable models at $29.50.

A SUPERB APRES MIDI DRESS

in Slavic motif is fashioned in satin and trimmed in beads. The draped collar descends to form sash and carries large beaded pockets. In Java and panard. $10.00.

Hosiery

WHOSE luster is of that hard rich gloss which betrays the silk pure and unadulterated.

New two-tone ribbed novelty hose; all combinations, $1.25. Gordon's "H 300" (ried and proven hosiery, in the autumn colorings. $1.00. Gordon's outer sizes in pure silk, black only. $1.00. The famous Esco boot silk hosiery, a new shipment in the new colors. 59c.

New Waists

The salient appeal of these new popular-priced models lies not so much in the style (for the lines are simply and smartly tailored) as in the quality, which is most exceptional.

At a Popular Price

A fine quality Flesh Crepe de Chine with round tailored collar and very deep turn-back cuffs, trimmed in buttons of ocean pearl. $2.08. Also models in Georgette with smart touches of Satin. $2.08. —Main Floor—Waist Shop.

CHAS. HAASE & SONS
119 West Broad Street.

Fine Furs

An attractive showing of choice Fur Coats, Muff and Neckpieces at reasonable prices.

Autumn Fashions

Are Fastidiously Correct When Framed On

THE SUCCESSOR CORSET

An Extraordinary Value. Inspect Them to Become Convinced.

$2.50 to $7.50

